You would help lead a team of skilled chefs and cooks to deliver high-quality, creative, and sustainable products and services. Additionally, you would support in overseeing staff costs, food costs, recruitment, and employee retention, as well as ensure compliance with health and safety regulations and maintain the highest standards of cleanliness and organisation in the kitchens.

The Ideal Candidate:

At least 5 years of experience in a similar role, preferably in a high-volume restaurant environment

A strong culinary background with a passion for creativity and innovation

Experience leading and developing a team of culinary professionals

A full understanding of the business and its profitability metrics

Extensive knowledge and experience with labour and margin targets, and how to achieve them.

Excellent communication and organisational skills

The ability to spot and resolve problems efficiently.

The ability to keep up with cooking trends and best practices

We offer:

- A Highly paid salary
- A lucrative performance bonus and benefits package
- Career advancement opportunities
- Extra holidays
- Staff meals
- Cycle to Work scheme
- Tax-free bus and rail tickets
- Refer a friend scheme
- Employee Assistance Programme

This is a great opportunity for the right person who will take on a Senior Role in the group.

They will work with Dylan and the team on consistency development and seasonal changes in the restaurants and will be involved in the strategy of the kitchens

If you are a talented and driven chef with a passion for the industry and the inner workings of the restaurant business, we would love to hear from you.
